COURT DECISIONS

Your name:

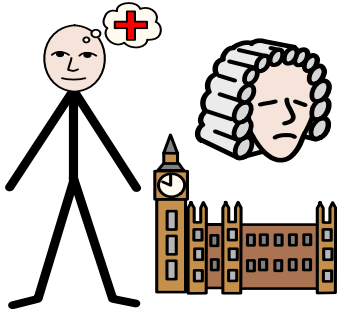

Your Doctor is:

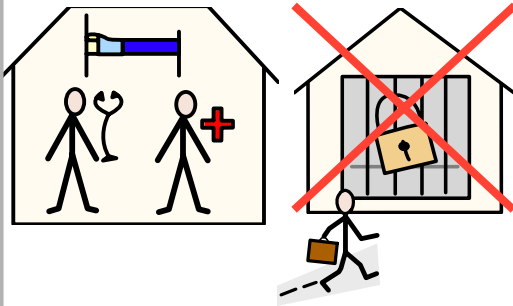

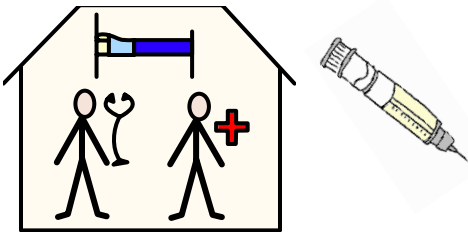

Information for patients

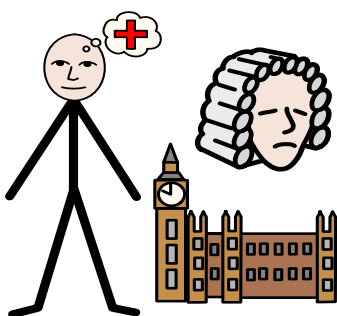

Section 37 of the Mental Health Act is where courts will make decisions about you.

Sometimes they will decide that you MUST have hospital treatment instead of going to prison.

You will be given treatment whether you agree or not.

You can appeal to the courts within 21 days of the order being made

If you do not agree with the Section you can appeal to the Hospital Managers and to a Mental Health Review Tribunal.
