

Nottingham's free and cheap hot food outlets

Written by Peter Bates

This is a list of places that offer a free or cheap hot meal to anyone who wants one. They were found on the websites listed at the end of this document and then updated with the help of providers. There are probably gaps and inaccuracies, so please send updates to peter.bates96@gmail.com.

There is also a small section listing a few places that offer light refreshments rather than a full meal - cheap or free tea and coffee, biscuits, cake and toast. There is a brief mention of kitchens where you can cook for free or at a low cost.

This list does not include any of the brilliant food banks or community gardens, allotments, pantries, fridges or other places providing cold food and cooking ingredients to people in Nottingham.

This is a 'community café'. Community cafés sell food and drink to the public on a first come, first served basis. A community café offers cheap food to some or all customers and aims to build community rather than just make profit. It may engage volunteers rather than employ staff. Crocus offers 'suspended meals'. A paying customer 'pays it forward' by paying for an extra meal for a stranger, which is then provided free to someone in need at the discretion of the manager. A couple of efforts were made around 2014 to get Suspended Coffee Nottingham up and running, but it appears to have failed as a citywide movement – see Suspended Coffee Nottingham | Facebook and Suspended Coffee Nottingham - Home \(weebly.com\). Crocus offers suspended vegetarian and vegan meals and drinks. Last checked 21/10/2022.
